Understanding Your Needs

A well-run and profitable Home Health and Hospice agency requires planning and daily attention. Keeping up-to-date on regulations, compliance, and insurance policies, takes valuable time away from patient care. That's where we can help.

AQREVA'S Team of Experts

Our Revenue Cycle Management team includes experienced certified coders and reimbursement specialists who excel in handling your agency's accounts receivable and optimizing your cash flow. AQREVA's team of billing and coding experts will help to address your agency's needs by improving work flow efficiencies, decreasing payer denials and increasing cash flow for your agency.

Our team of experts take pride in the ability to streamline your work flow, improve communication, and maximize cash flow from your accounts receivable. With these improved operations, your agency will have quicker turn-around of insurance payments and patient collections. Our team will help assure compliance of third party regulations, and decrease administrative and personnel management time associated with staffing your own billing office. Our knowledge of Medicare, Medicaid and third party insurance requirements, enables us to improve your overall business performance.
